GOVERNOR WITHHOLDS ORDER TO REMOVE TROOPS

WESTERN FEDERATION WILL ATTACK MINES TODAY

PROPERTIES OF UNITED STATES REDUCTION CO. MEN'S TO STANDARD MILL

GRAND DEMONSTRATION AT ALTAR OF THE GOD

Secretary Maxwell Arrives as Personal Representative of the Governor to Investigate Conditions at Colorado City, and Meanwhile Troops Remain Pending Decision.

UNTIL 4 O CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON IS THE TIME GIVEN BY THE WESTERN FEDERATION OF MINERS TO THE MINES NOW SHIPPING ORE TO THE MILLS OF THE UNITED STATES REDUCTION & REFINING COMPANY, TO CEASE DOING SO. IF THE DEMAND IS NOT COMPLIED WITH BY THAT TIME, A STRIKE OF THE MINERS EMPLOYED IN THE PROPERTIES WILL BE ORDERED.

THIS IS THE RESULT OF THE MEETING OF PRESIDENT MOYER AND OFFICERS OF THE WESTERN FEDERATION OF MINERS WITH THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE CRIPPLE CREEK DISTRICT UNION LAST NIGHT.

THE SITUATION AT COLORADO CITY IS ASSUMING A PHASE MORE SERIOUS THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE THE ARRIVAL OF THE MILITIA. THE PORTLAND GOLD MINING CO. YESTERDAY SENT A DEMAND TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS AND SHERIFF GILBERT FOR PROTECTION OF THE OFFICIALS OF THE COMPANY, ITS EMPLOYES AND PROPERTIES. THE LETTER RECITES THAT THE MEN REMAINING FAITHFUL TO THE COMPANY ARE BEING THREATENED AND TROUBLE IS AN IMMEDIATE PROSPECT. THE LETTER CONCLUDES THAT PROTECTION IS DEMANDED AND EXPECTED BY THE COMPANY.

J. M. MAXWELL, PRIVATE SECRETARY TO GOVERNOR PEABODY, ACCOMPANIED BY A STENOGRAPHER, ARRIVED LAST NIGHT AND WILL INVESTIGATE CONDITIONS AT COLORADO CITY IN REGARD TO THE ADVISABILITY OF A WITHDRAWAL OF THE TROOPS. NO ORDERS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED BY GENERAL CHASE TO MOVE THE TROOPS AND IT IS THE OPINION AT CAMP PEABODY THAT THE MILITIA WILL REMAIN UNTIL THE SITUATION IS CLARIFIED.

J. M. Maxwell, private secretary to Governor Peabody, arrived in Colorado Springs at 10 30 o'clock last night Mr. Maxwell was accompanied by a stenographer. J. C. Montgomery and is here to look into the strike situation in regard to the withdrawal of the troops, as the personal representative of the Governor.

General Chase, in command has received no orders from the chief executive looking to the moving of the militia. The troops have been withdrawn from the Portland and Telluride mills where the strike has been settled and are still at Camp Peabody at the Standard mill of the United States Reduction & Refining company. Sheriff Gilbert has received no further communication from the governor but did Secretary Maxwell last night bring any orders with him.

Portland Gave Notice

The Portland Gold Mining company, through Frank G. Peck secretary-treasurer yesterday notified the board of county commissioners and Sheriff Gilbert that the management had been informed that not only threats are and will be made against the men who remained at work at the mill but "there is liable to be just as much trouble almost immediately as we have heretofore had," and the company demanded protection.

President James F. Burns of the Portland company, returned yesterday noon from his southern trip but said he had no statement to make. Sheriff Gilbert received the letter from the Portland management early last evening.

"I have not increased the number of deputy sheriffs now on duty," said Sheriff Gilbert but will take steps consistent with the situation."

The military authorities stated that the troops are in El Paso county to maintain peace and order and if conditions warrant and they should still be here any call from the civil authorities will be responded to immediately.

A large number of men made application at the Telluride and Portland mills yesterday for reinstatement. Although the Telluride is not working the chance to work under Contractor Atkinson, as suggested by President Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners was not to be neglected, and the men signified by their presence that the strike was ended. Twenty-five union men at the changing of the noon shift entered the works at the Portland and occupied the places filled in the morning by employes during the strike. There was no trouble beyond reports that threats had been made against the non-union men on the pay rolls and that these men would not be tenderly dealt with.

Mill and Smeltermen's union No 125 of Colorado City met last night and union men who had gone on two shifts at the Portland reported everything satisfactory at that mill. The only complaint came from a union blacksmith, who said the smith whose place he took had damaged tools in the shop.

After the meeting Representative Charles Burr of the Western Federation of Miners stated he had instructed the men to suffer indignities if needs be, from the non-union workmen employed at the Portland, but not to fight or create trouble.

"I told them to remain quiet that everything was satisfactory said Mr. Burr.

Coming of Maxwell

General Chase was notified of the coming of Private Secretary Maxwell early in the evening and calling up Representative Burr asked Burr President Edwards of the union and the executive committee to arrange to meet Mr Maxwell shortly after his arrival. At 10 45 o'clock General Chase called up strike headquarters from the Antlers hotel and informed the mill men that Mr. Maxwell would not meet with them last night but would hold a meeting this morning.

In a statement after receiving this communication Representative Burr said:

"I will guarantee my protection in Colorado City and at the mills that the authorities may want. Our men are sticking to their agreement. I have talked to all the boys and advised them to be very conservative in their actions. There has been surprise manifested at the troops remaining, but I think Mr Maxwell will be able to explain the reason. I have arranged for a meeting with him tomorrow (Tuesday) morning."

Maxwell's Arrival.

Secretary Maxwell would make no statement concerning his mission to Colorado City. He will be here he said, until the matters calling him to the mills have been concluded. General Chase and the officers at Camp Peabody have been instructed to aid him in securing what information he may require.

It was the original intention to go at once to Colorado City and meet the federation and union officials. An escort, or patrol of cavalry under Captain H. D. Smith of Troop C cavalry went at the Denver & Rio Grande depot with a carriage for the use of General Chase, Colonel James H. Brown, Mr. Maxwell and the stenographer who will take the proceedings at the meetings and during the inquiry to be conducted by Mr. Maxwell. Mr. Montgomery is a stenographer in the office of Governor Peabody.

Meeting Postponed

At the depot with General Chase and Colonel Brown were Majors Lee and Williams Major Williams being assistant adjutant general. Upon arrival of Mr Maxwell he was driven to the Antlers hotel. At a conference between the officers Sheriff Gilbert and Secretary Maxwell it was decided because of the lateness of the hour to postpone the meeting with the federation officials until this morning and at midnight Mr Maxwell retired.

President Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners stated he had instructed the men to suffer indignities if needs be, from the non-union workmen employed at the Portland, but not to fight or create trouble.

"I told them to remain quiet that everything was satisfactory said Mr. Burr.

Coming of Maxwell

General Chase was notified of the coming of Private Secretary Maxwell early in the evening and calling up Representative Burr asked Burr President Edwards of the union and the executive committee to arrange to meet Mr Maxwell shortly after his arrival. At 10 45 o'clock General Chase called up strike headquarters from the Antlers hotel and informed the mill men that Mr. Maxwell would not meet with them last night but would hold a meeting this morning.

In a statement after receiving this communication Representative Burr said:

"I will guarantee my protection in Colorado City and at the mills that the authorities may want. Our men are sticking to their agreement. I have talked to all the boys and advised them to be very conservative in their actions. There has been surprise manifested at the troops remaining, but I think Mr Maxwell will be able to explain the reason. I have arranged for a meeting with him tomorrow (Tuesday) morning.

The continued growth of our framing trade is a real surprise to us. Orders for 93 frames were taken Saturday.

Since we opened our store two years ago we have made framing a specialty.

We have spared no expense in stock of mouldings and in equipment for turning out superior work.

That accounts for our large patronage in this department.

People like the "Foltz & Hardy" style—and you know it costs but a trifle more, if any at all, than commonplace work.

Within a week or ten days we will have in all of our new spring samples.

WESTERN SEXTON AWARDS THE WESTERN BASE UMPIRES

According to the list of umpires given out by President Sexton in this city last night the Western league will be very strong in that department during the coming season. President Sexton has endeavored in choosing his staff for this year to eliminate all possibility of any such objectionable features characterizing this important part of baseball in the Western this season as was found in the season of 1902. The different propositions that confronted the umpires last year were of course untried and to that may be blamed their unfitness. President Sexton has taken the matter in hand this year and has secured a bunch of talent to handle the indicator that is sure to give satisfaction.

The men who will rule the diamond in the league this season are Jack Brennan, J. J. Kelley, Leo Mesmer and Jack McCarthy.

Jack Brennan is well known to all followers of the history of the Western league in the past few years. In 1900 Brennan was a catcher on the fast Denver aggregation and he well qualified with all the points of the game. Brennan has been an umpire in the Three I league under President Sexton for three years. Kelley is from Manchester, N. H., and has been in the umpiring business for the past eight or 10 years. Kelley umpired in the Southern league last year. Mesmer is the little man from the Three I league who worked in Denver during the third series of last season. The Denver fans acknowledge him to be the best man who ever officiated in that town and considering the temperament of the Denver fans Mesmer must be a wonder. McCarthy is an ex-ball player who was with Denver two years ago but they blanketed him out and had to give up playing. He umpired in the Pacific Northwest league last season.

There will be no substitute umpires this season. "We have found them to be unsatisfactory as no matter what the case may be the visiting teams always think they will get the worst of it. If a regular man gets sick or cannot officiate then we will select a player from each team to act," said President Sexton.

[illegible] SEASON

The Lewis Prohibitionists from Des Moines will meet the Millionaires at Bonheur park Wednesday, April [illegible], when the Western league season opens and will be the first game of the season. Tom Burns bunch of pennant winners. President M. H. Sexton arrived in the city last night from Denver to complete the Pueblo and and while the two gentlemen visited Mr. Burns here the schedule as affects Colorado Springs and Denver was given out. Colorado Springs will play only eight games at home before leaving for the east. Des Moines will play four games here on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday and on Sunday Tom Rourke's crowd of Packing House men from Omaha will come to Colorado Springs for four games. Omaha will open in Denver. After the games with Des Moines and Omaha the two colored teams will leave for the east playing at Des Moines and Omaha. They will then return home for eight games with Kansas City and Milwaukee.

This system of eight day jumps here is necessary on account of the non-conflicting schedule with the American league battles in Kansas City and Milwaukee. Every two teams will play together twice. Every team in the league will get a Sunday and each team in the West in division will get two Sundays and each in the eastern one Sunday. Colorado Springs will play Milwaukee in this city on Decoration day and will go to Denver to play the Grizzlies on July 4. President Sexton states that he will have the entire holiday ready for publication within two weeks.

Hickey and I made it out on the train coming out and I want to look over it before letting the papers have it.

Mr. Sexton says the outlook for baseball in the Western league and in fact all over the country this year is very bright. Each club has a much stronger ragged team than it had last year and I believe that we will have a ball all round than we had last year.

Mr. Sexton is en route to his home in Rock Island from the Pueblo. He was joined by President Hickey of the American association west of Kansas City and effected a joint agreement with the Western league. While we did not bring the California league into the National association we have made our plans for a Pacific league that will come into the association and at the same time drive the California league out of business.

President Sexton will leave in the east this morning. Hickey accompanied him as far as Denver but is now home. The association was very lit, he hurried on east.

[illegible] Engage [illegible]

Recognizing the value of college athletics for both students and college prominent women of the city are making arrangements to hold a big rummage sale during the first week in April. The money thus raised will be turned into the athletic association of Colorado college, it being understood that the chief purpose of this contribution is the securing of a good coach for the football team of the institution this fall. The following is a partial list of those interested in the movement: Mrs. B. H. Bryant, Mrs. W. F. Slocum, Mrs. Louis A. J. Abbot, Mrs. Phillip B. Stewart, Mrs. Florence Cutler, Mrs. R. W. Chisholm, Mrs. Frank Woods and Miss Elizabeth Martin.

Those in charge request housekeepers to help in this undertaking by contributing anything and everything they wish, clothes, furniture, bric-a-brac, things stored in the attic or in the cellar, there is hardly anything that is not some value for some one.

If those wishing to contribute will kindly telephone to Mrs. W. F. Slocum or to Mrs. R. W. Chisholm their contributions will be called for.

The Pueblo murderers and robbers may be brought to grief by their means of escape. They are supposed to have taken a horse and buggy belonging to a ranchman just outside of the city and there has been a complete description of this outfit given to the police in the surrounding cities. It is hardly probable that they will be able to get far if they continue to use it.

It is not known what direction the men took and the police have the description of only one of them.

He is declared to be about five feet nine inches tall, 21 to 25 years old, weighing about 170 pounds. He is of a fair complexion with medium complexion and is slightly bow legged.

The buggy in which they are supposed to have made their escape is described as being a top buggy painted black with the horse a bay mare with a star in his forehead.

KOREA AMBITIOUS IN NAVAL LINE

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Tokio, Feb. 28, via San Francisco, March 16.—Korea is becoming ambitious in the naval line and has already placed an order with the Mitsui company of Japan for a man-of-war to cost $275,000. The Russian representative in Seoul is said to have opposed the measure while the Japanese minister is neutral.

The nominal opening of the fifth domestic industrial exhibition at Osaki is set for tomorrow, although the formal opening by the emperor of Japan will not take place for at least a month. This is the largest and most ambitious exhibition ever attempted by Japan. As is well known foreign exhibits will constitute a conspicuous feature and many United States firms have seized the opportunity to bring their goods to the particular notice of the thousands of orientals who will visit the exhibition between now and July 1 when it closes.

If one horse eats a bale of hay a week, how much will two horses eat?

Easy to answer that twice as much, of course.

Same way with telephone systems—two cost twice as much as one.

Promoter of new scheme will say that his scheme will do away with the Bell.

Of course he needs that argument to sell his goods.

But he never has put the Bell out—tried it three times; couldn't do it.

Hopes to make it stick this time, but he is experimenting with your money.

Kind o' tough on you.

Mrs. Harriet A. S. Marsh, President of the Woman's Benevolent Association of Chicago, writes:

I suffered with grip seven weeks. Nothing helped me. I tried Peruna and within three weeks I was fully recovered. Shall never be without it. Mrs. Harriet A. S. Marsh.

La grippe has always been a peculiarly fatal disease. Its ravages are not so startling as diphtheria or so much dry dust as scarlet fever, but the number of victims are greater than either.

Silently and slowly it gathers in its fearful harvest of pale faces. It does not spread from man to man like a contagious disease, nor does it belong to Boulder, Colorado, like malaria. It lurks in the air everywhere. It is of almost alpha. No man can escape from it, no woman can rise from it.

"MEDICAL TALK" Says:

Speaking of remedies for la grippe the editor of Medical Talk, one of the popular medical journals of the present time, says: "Whatever may be said against proprietary medicines in a general way, the fact remains that there are more people who rely upon Peruna as a remedy for la grippe than use all other remedies combined. No other remedy is so widely used and implicitly believed in as a remedy for la grippe as Peruna. There is no way to account for this fact except that Peruna is what the people believe it to be, a specific for la grippe."

A MATTER OF FAIR PLAY.

IN A PERUSAL of the statement issued by the United States Reduction company one fact stands forth clearly and very much to the credit of that company.

It is its refusal to discharge at the behest of the union leaders the men now in its employ and who have remained with it during this trouble. To discharge the men who remained at their work in order to make room for men who quit its employ would be as great an act of injustice as could well be perpetrated.

In taking this stand in behalf of the men now at work and who are anxious to continue at work, and are satisfied with their employment, as they told the governor, the reduction company ought to have the support of all persons in the community who believe in justice and fair play.

The rule in the settlement of labor troubles is, in nine cases out of ten, that men who leave their employment are taken back as fast as places can be found for them.

COLORED VOTERS IN THIS CAMPAIGN.

IT IS NOT surprising that the colored people of this city have decided to place independent candidates for aldermen in the field in several wards. The colored voter is long-suffering. He has been deceived times without number by his especial friend and guardian, the Republican party. He has been asked for his votes and has been told that he would get the best in the land, and, when the time came, the best was a janitorship.

The Democratic party, while making no pretence of being the especial friend of the negro, has, as a matter of fact, done quite as much for the advancement of that race and to give its members a chance to earn a living as the Republican party. The Democrats have not done this because they were pledged to do it, but because they thought it was fair and just.

Take this very county of El Paso, the first time that a colored man was given anything better than a janitorship was by an official elected by the Democrats. Since that time the practice has been continued, to a certain extent, but no one will deny that the Republicans have merely continued it as a matter of policy. They are always anxious to secure the colored man's vote and to use it to further their particular purposes. In return, they are rich in promises, but they never deliver the goods.

AN INTERESTING CONVENTION.

A STATE convention of unusual interest begins its sessions in this city tonight under the auspices of the National Reform association. Briefly, its purpose is to consider moral issues in national life. These embrace a variety of subjects, including juvenile delinquency, the labor problem, the saloon menace, religious teaching in public schools, Sunday observance and others.

The association has the support and earnest encouragement not only of the ministerial body of the land, but of many judges of courts, statesmen and publicists. While a variety of subjects are to be considered at this and other meetings, the two topics which command the especial interest of the association are those of Sabbath observance and moral training in the schools. Both are questions of deepest interest. It will not, perhaps, be denied that the tendency of the times is more and more toward a secularized Sabbath. This does not mean mere absence from church, but the tendency toward keeping shops open and doing business, and of making the day a holiday. There is a wide difference between observing the Sabbath as a day of rest and of making it a fete day. Sabbatarians do not insist that a man go to church on Sunday or any other day, but they believe that it is time to call a halt against the tendency of the times towards picnicking, excursioning and attending public sports of various kinds.

There are many people, not especially religious, who agree with the reformers that these tendencies ought to be checked, and that if the United States is to preserve its lifelong character as a Christian nation, they must be checked. Hence, meetings such as will be held in this city for the next three days ought to be welcomed, both for the new ideas which will be presented, and for the reason that they will cause the community to stop and think upon matters of serious import.

PUEBLO'S RESPONSIBILITY.

THE SHOCKING tragedy in Pueblo on Sunday night seems almost incomprehensible. One can scarcely believe that bandits have become so bold as to enter a restaurant in the heart of the second city in point of size in Colorado in the early evening and shoot down two inoffensive citizens. The dying statement of one of the men furnishes a strong indictment of the authorities and of the police of Pueblo. He said: "I know that I am fatally wounded, for I feel that I will live but a few minutes, but I want to say that when such things can be done in a city like Pueblo, there is something wrong with the police department."

No one, of course, will blame the police for not being present at this particular time, but the fact that such a tragedy is possible, either through lack of police or inefficiency of the members of the force, is in itself a severe arraignment of the city officials. A number of dastardly crimes have been committed in Pueblo of late, and the city owes it to itself and to its good name and to its future to hunt down the assassins and to see that such crimes are not repeated.

The Methodist church has a sufficient number of governors in office at the present time to have a Methodist governors' banquet. It was held in Chicago a few nights ago, and was a regular love feast. The Methodist brethren seem to know how to succeed in politics as well as in religion.

J. Whittaker Wright, the London promoter, who was arrested in New York yesterday, declares that he is "a friend of King Edward." Not if he loaded his majesty up with a lot of those South African mining shares.

Richard Harding Davis is going to give his fellow citizens of Marion, Mass., a chance to see his comedy, "The King of Helen." This is said to be an act of kindness to Richard's part.

COLORADO CITY RESOURCES.

THE REGION in and about Colorado City is especially rich in natural resources. The place seems peculiarly fitted for manufacturing enterprises because of the nearness of these natural deposits, which eliminate the expense of a railway haul. The value of these resources was demonstrated years ago when a glass manufacturer did a good business at Colorado City. If that institution had continued business until the present day, it would undoubtedly have been one of the largest concerns of its kind in the west.

In addition to the material for glass-making, which is found in abundance, there is a wealth of clay suitable for making brick, tile, sewer pipe and like products. The people of Colorado City have shown their willingness to give these enterprises a warm welcome, and in all probability the next decade will see twice as many men employed in manufacturing establishments as are now upon the pay rolls.

Mr. M. E. Ingalls, a business man, a railroad man of wide experience, is the Citizens candidate for mayor of Cincinnati. To run that city as it ought to be run requires ability, energy and firmness. It requires little or no political acumen, because it is largely a business proposition. Nevertheless, Mr. Ingalls is meeting with vigorous opposition from the "bosses." One of these worthies is George Cox, who seeks to perpetuate his machine rule. Another is Senator Foraker, who believes that the Republican opponent of Mr. Ingalls should be elected. Foraker declares that "This is the beginning of the great campaign of next year, and if Ingalls is elected mayor, he will be in line for the governorship of Ohio and the presidency." This comment has a very familiar sound. Whenever the bosses can find no sound reason to oppose a candidate for mayor, he must be defeated for the "good of the party" and for the effect it will have upon the coming election. Sensible people will see no connection between the election of a business man to run an Ohio municipality in a businesslike way and the nomination of candidates for national offices upon strict party platforms next year. Such an appeal shows the desperate straits into which Senator Foraker and his associates have fallen.

The papers yesterday contained the following head on the sporting page: "Chicago 7; Los Angeles 6." Thus begins the base ball season, and from now until the snow flies there will be an endless discussion as to the merits of this or that club and its chances for getting the pennant.

A number of British troops in Africa are becoming very much discontented because, they say, "They have the drawbacks of active service without the exhilaration." Now that the Boers have gone back to their farms, the exhilaration of shooting them has passed away.

A number of eastern cities including New York and Philadelphia are going to make an effort to enforce the anti-expectoration ordinance. We have such an ordinance in Colorado Springs, but no attempt is made to enforce it.

The champion mean man has developed in New York. He insisted that his wife buy her summer hats in the fall and her winter hats in the spring to save money. The brute!

This is the week when the candidate for office puts in his time on the street corners shaking hands with his fellow citizens and playing the "good fellow" generally.

Grippe is said to be epidemic at Washington. Judging from the manner in which the officeholders cling to their jobs, it will never be anything else.

Those persons who are remarking that spring is "in the air" probably refer to the March movement in local real estate.

DEER HUNTING IN AUTOMOBILES.

The idea of utilizing the automobile in deer-hunting has been introduced to the west. Mr. W. W. Price of Colorado Springs probably has the honor of being the first one to go after deer and other big game in a motor car. Mr. Price has recently returned from a tour in which he was quite successful, and which covered several hundred miles through the wildest portion of the state. Accompanied by Dr. C. E. Smith, Mr. Price started in a Winton car of about 15-horse power, going through South park and Buena Vista, and climbing Ute pass, one of the most difficult passages in the Colorado Rockies. They entered the "Flat Top" country, as it is called, going directly to the deer range in the vehicle. Several fine specimens were shot, and the game "packed" in the front of the touring-car to be brought back to their headquarters at the camp of the Montgomery Land and Cattle company.

During their trip the auto passed through a considerable portion of the country which has never before been visited by a chauffeur. Near the town of Meeker a band of deer actually followed the car some distance, apparently astonished at the strange animal. While within easy range of the rifles carried by Mr. Price and his companions, no attempt was made to shoot them, as it was not considered sportsmanlike.

The arrival of the huntsmen at Meeker caused a sensation, as few in the town had ever seen such a vehicle, and it was the first to make its appearance within the limits. The local paper, in commenting upon the arrival, said: "The first automobile to make its appearance in this valley arrived Tuesday evening, the distance between Rifle and Meeker having been covered in three and one-half hours, including stops and one slight breakdown. Mr. W. W. Price and Dr. C. E. Smith were the passengers. The machine was given a box-stall at Shup Harp's livery, and 'Salty' was on hand with a new 50-foot rope and a pair of hobbles to secure the thing. All the horses in the barn talked it over that night, and concluded that when the roads were bad it would be the same old thing—double up and act up in the collar. It will not prove as destructive on the range as sheep."—(Harper's Weekly.

THE ADVANTAGES OF BEING FIFTY.

Today the most influential factors in social life are the women of 50 and over. They are not always the leaders of the great work who are most in evidence; but if health, tests which count. They give the cachet, the final title, to any entertainment.

For a woman to be a real power in the social world requires a more comprehensive range of gifts than in almost any other field. She must be a tactician, a diplomat, a quick judge of human nature, a faultless organizer, "Mme. la Ressource" at every point.

At the present time the professional woman of 50, at the very zenith of her powers, is stretching out eager hands to the future. She does not sit down and rust, but hones well after her talents, that they may be burnished and polished and taking on an ever-new luster. She brings to her work a ripened knowledge of life and of the emotions and passions upon the character which could only have been gained after years of observation and close study of men and women.—(The Cosmopolitan.

THE BOSTON BAG.

Once more the Boston bag serves with a contemporary as a peg upon which to hang various satiric pleasantries. Now the bag habit prevails, it seems, in some stage or phase, in every large city. Most of the facts relating to the Boston bag deal with its usefulness, and some of the pleasantries are built around its capaciousness. Well, nobody ever pretended it was beautiful, and when attempts were made to manufacture it from expensive materials, ornate in themselves, it appeared less beautiful to us than ever. But a great many women living in Boston and its suburbs never, never would have a Boston bag in their hands; while others would in an emergency carry one after dark through side streets if they wished to take some delicacy to a sick friend. To show that we have a true sense of humor and can laugh with those who laugh at us, we will join with these mockers and add that the Boston bag is really amusing when it is carried by a strapping chap determined to be polite to the woman with whom he is walking, either by chance or intent. Some, averse to the bag habit, have been almost moved to tears by such a spectacle, but then, if the man didn't object, what business was it of the casual witness.—(Boston Transcript.

SHORT STORIES

Much that is going on in the political world recalls an incident of the general election which resulted in making Abraham Lincoln president.

'Twas in Vermont, then, as now, and always, what is known as "Republican" only then the prefix "Black" was invariably added by those "not so." There was a mass meeting in one of the smaller towns. Two or three speakers, all of them of the immediate neighborhood, had delivered their testimony in favor of Lincoln. One (I will call him "Jim Blake") was speaking and over and over again referred to the candidate he favored as "Honest Old Abe." At a pause in his speech, "to wipe his heated brow," "Tom Haines," sitting on a rail fence across from the speaker, quietly remarked:

"Jim, tell the boys why you call him 'Honest Old Abe.'"

Blake undertook to establish the claim to the title with his specific adjective. Then he stopped. The question was repeated with emphasis on "Why?" Again Blake went over the usual, natural and very appropriate reasons, when he was stopped by Haines:

"Oh, I know all that, but just tell the boys why you call him 'Honest Old Abe?'"

"Well," replied Blake, "I don't know any other reasons than those I have already given."

"Ah! I thought so," said Haines. "Shall I tell the boys?"

"Yes, if you know better than I do."

"To distinguish him from all the rest of the party."—(New York Times.

The Price of It.

While the secretary of the treasury is not generally secretive, he has a way of turning off questioners that is absolutely mystifying when he does not want to impart information. There is a great deal of quibbling going on over the selection of sites for public buildings and the competition in some cases is hot. A while ago a man who wanted to sell an expensive lot to the government called upon the secretary to get a tip on the price that another lot was offered at, which would give him a good advantage.

"By the way," said the man, "what does Mr. Blank want for his lot?"

"Oh, Blank wants twice what the lot is worth," said Mr. Shaw.

"Well, what is the lot worth?"

"Half what Blank asks for it."—(Washington Post.

Outdone.

He was the champion liar of the town. Like most men of that profession, he took himself seriously, and resented any suspicion of his veracity. One evening, at his favorite lounging place, he was outdoing himself on his pet topic, the civil war. With the crowd gratified by long months he was reeling off yarn after yarn about his exploits, though every one knew that he had never been anything but a mortician's clerk.

"Talk of war," he was just saying, "our campaign in the Wilderness was the worst. It rained for days without letting up. Poured by the bucketful the whole time. When it did stop we hooked right up and started off with our artillery, slushing and splashing along till we were all covered with mud. Pretty soon we came to a regular water hole, but we drove right along, and do you know the first team went right out of sight. Yes, sir, eight mules, limber gun and all sunk out of sight. All we got out was the driver's hat."

A newcomer in the town, who had not as yet learned to respect this man's fables, then spoke:

"I've seen some mud, too, in my time. When I was a boy over in Jersey on my father's farm, we had a terribly wet spring. The roads were sloppy and folks did not hitch up, unless they just had to go. One day I saw a hill on in the road, right in a big puddle. Thought it was funny, that had out there, so I waded out to get it."

"Maybe now you won't believe me, but I swear it's so. Well, sir, you can believe it or not, just as you like, there was a man under that hat. And says I, 'Why, hello! can't I help you out?' 'Oh, no,' says he, 'guess I can get along. I'm a horse-back.'"

The champion glared at this irreverent speaker. "Humph," was all he said. "Any fool can lie." And with that remark he quickly left the room.—(Philadelphia Ledger.

Queer Pedigree.

A young man strolled into a coffee tavern and called for a sandwich.

"Do you know what a sandwich is?" asked an old man, who was seated at a table.

"Yes," replied the young man; "a sandwich is two large pieces of bread with a small piece of meat in the middle."

"Are you going to eat that piece of bread and meat?" inquired the old man.

"Yes. Why not?" asked the young man.

"Because," replied the old man, "that piece of bread is the mother of the steam roller up the street."

"The mother of the steam roller up the street?" repeated the young man in surprise. "Impossible! Explain yourself."

"Bread," said the old man, "is a necessity; that steam rolly is an invention, and I thought everybody knew that necessity was the mother of invention."—(New Orleans Picayune.

This is one that Joe Hedges of New York says is new. A countryman went down to the city and returned full of tales of the time he had had. He was relating them in the village store and one of the admiring crowd inquired if he had gambled.

"Gambled!" he shouted, "gambled! Why, my friend, I played the gol-darned slot machine till no more gum would come. Did I gamble? Well, say!"

A STIRRING IRISH SONG FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Oh! Paddy dear, and did you hear the news that's going round?
The Shamrock is forbidden by law to grow on Irish ground!
St. Patrick's Day no more to keep, his color can't be seen,
For there's a bloody law against the wearin' of the green.

I met with Napper Tandy, and he took me by the hand,
And he said, "How's poor ould Ireland, and how does she stand?"
She's the most distressful country that ever you have seen,
They're hanging men and women there for wearin' of the green.

Ireland's song against British rule has played a large part thus far. The revolutionary ballad of Carrickfergus a century ago by Tom Robinson was a part of his wonderfully successful play, "Analcing Poems." It was founded on a still older revolutionary street ballad in which a conversation was imagined between Bonaparte and an Irishman. Bonaparte was supposed to have asked:

"And how is ould Ireland, and how does she stand?"

The reply, plaintive and yet sweet, came:

"Its a poor distressed country, and a poor land indeed."

This imaginary conversation put suited the purpose of Dion Boucicault when he cast about for a song for Shawn of the Post in his play, and he conjured the words which have brought tears to the eyes and stirred the blood of hundreds of thousands of Irishmen the world over.

The first stanza is followed by one breathing defiance in every line. This is the sentiment:

When the leaf comes out in the shady wood
Some people say it looks so good,
And when the leaves in summer time
Their verdure dare not show,
Then I will change the color I wear in my cap
But till that day, please God, I'll stick to wearing of the green.

Sure is that all that the song does of the Irish feeling. As a race Irishmen wanted freedom then as they want it now, and they looked to America then, as they do now, for an asylum. The last stanza points out depopulation of Ireland as the result of continued oppression, and looks to the side of the water.

Where the Grand rivers of England shall be seen,
Throughout never shall the sod be
And while thank God we'll live and die,
We'll still be wearing of the green.

Boucicault, petite and diminutive was born in Dublin, December 26, 1822. His father being a French refugee it was only natural that the son though educated in England, should take up the cause of the oppressed. He spent a great deal of time in Ireland, and always studied it and its institutions.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT W[illegible] SPEND [illegible] IN MADISON, WIS

According to advice received from Washington yesterday President Roosevelt will be in Colorado Springs for one hour and 30 minutes on Monday, May 4, arriving here at 3:30 in the afternoon and leaving at 4:15 over the Denver and Rio Grande railroad. It is expected that the president will be accompanied by Hon. Elihu Root, secretary of war, William Loeb, jr., President Roosevelt's private secretary, Surgeon-general P. M. Rixey, U. S. N., and representatives of the press.

A meeting of as many members of the chamber of commerce as could be reached on short notice by secretary Wray was held and the matter of entertaining the President was discussed. Secretary Wray was instructed to draft a greeting to the President's private secretary to the effect that the sentiments of the president would be complied with and a telegram was sent to the president's private secretary expressing gratification on the part of the citizens of Colorado Springs and extending a hearty welcome.

Mayor Robinson on behalf of the city also sent a telegram to the president expressing the pleasure of the people and a hearing of his friend's visit to Colorado Springs and extending to him a hearty welcome of the city.

In view of the suggestion of the president that no public reception be held by chamber of commerce will arrange for a short drive for the party and a brief speech by President Roosevelt at a time to be fixed later.

Committees will be appointed by the chamber of commerce to take charge of the arrangement for the president's visit and every effort will be made to make his stay in Colorado Springs one of pleasure both to the president and party as well as to the citizens of the city and vicinity.

WALTER M. McMAHON WEDS MISS MARY [illegible]

The friends of W. D. McMahon were much surprised last evening to learn of his marriage in Denver yesterday at noon to Miss Mary Cullen of Omaha, formerly of this city. The couple were married at the home of Mrs. Cora McCarty on Stout street by the Rev. J. D. Rankin of Denver. Returning to Colorado Springs last night they immediately went to the residence at 121 Grant avenue, which they will make their home. After learning of the marriage a number of the salesmen from Holbrook & Perkins' store, where Mr. McMahon is employed, called upon the couple and a party was held in their honor.

Mr. McMahon left the city Sunday morning for Denver but did not inform any of his friends of his intention so that all were quite surprised upon his return to learn that he was married.

[illegible] TO ENTERTAIN DELEGATES

In order to induce the citizens of Colorado Springs to join the Chamber of commerce in larger numbers than heretofore, a special rate has been announced, making the entire cost for the current year only $10. There are at present 280 members, 21 having joined within the past few weeks and it is hoped that before the summer season opens there will be at least a membership of 500. In Manitou the recently organized Business Men's association is rapidly increasing in membership until now nearly every business man in the city is a member and the organization is taking an active part in public improvements in the city.

The vote cast at elections in Colorado Springs has decreased and Secretary Wray states that the membership of the chamber of commerce should be at least 400 to compare with the proportion to the population that is reached in Manitou.

The following is a list of the recent additions to the membership:

H. C. Chapman, L. W. Stillings, H. C. H. Emery, Jim Hazlitt, Jno. Hinebaugh, Wm. Harris, Irving Frost, S. Tucker, C. H. [illegible], Paul Gonke, H. Anderson, H. Hess Stevens, J. E. Miller, Walter C. Frost, W. H. Spurgeon, H. A. Brown, Commissioner [illegible], Philip L. Wilson, E. A. McIntosh, Walter Scott, E. L. H[illegible], J. [illegible], Jno. E. V. Donaldson.

[illegible] CAMPAIGN

Colorado Springs has decided to open a campaign for the entertainment of the delegates to the Rhodes scholarship conference which will be held here next May. Secretary Wray states that the membership of the chamber of commerce should be at least 400 to compare with the proportion to the population that is reached in Manitou.

ALL THE RHODES CANDIDATES [illegible] SCHOLARSHIPS

Yesterday afternoon at the Brown Palace hotel, Denver, was held one of the most important educational conferences ever convened in the Rocky Mountain region. Thirty representatives of the colleges and universities of Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico met Dr. George R. Parkin, principal of the Upper Canada college, Toronto, the representative of the Cecil Rhodes scholarship fund, who has been holding conferences with the leading educators in all sections of the United States and Canada to discover what is the educational judgment of the country, especially on the question of the selection of the candidates for the scholarships. The personnel of the conference was besides Dr. Parkin as follows: President James H. Baker of the University of Colorado, Dean B. A. Howe of the University of Denver, Dean Edward S. Parsons of Colorado college, President E. E. Smiley of the University of Wyoming, Dean C. L. Hodgin of the University of New Mexico. Dr. Baker was elected chairman and Professor Parsons secretary. The meeting opened with an informal address by Dr. Parkin telling something of the difficulties in the way of carrying out the provisions of the will and outlining some of the results which he had been able to secure in the twelve conferences he has held in different parts of the country. He stated that only a certain class of men ought to think of Oxford. It was no place for technical and higher scientific work. The training is best adapted to those who are seeking a literary or a diplomatic career. He said that it had already been practically decided that one of the examinations to be required of all candidates is what is called at Oxford responsions, which includes arithmetic, algebra through quadratics or two books of plane geometry, Latin and Greek grammar, translation of English into Latin prose and two books one in Greek and one in Latin, from a specified list by Greek and Latin authors. Such an examination would of course shut out all students who have not pursued a classical course.

The conference lasted for four hours. After prolonged discussion it formulated certain recommendations which will be presented to the Rhodes trustees as expressing the educational sentiment of the Rocky Mountain region concerning the selection of candidates.

(1) That the candidate shall have completed at least two full years of college work before the beginning of his residence at Oxford.

(2) That he matriculate as a student when he enters upon his scholarship shall be 24 years.

(3) That he shall be unmarried.

(4) That he shall be able to devote to entire upon his prescribed work at Oxford.

(5) That in the selection of candidates all other things being equal preference shall be given to students who have taken their college education in a university or college in the territory which they represent.

(6) That in the states of Wyoming and Utah in each of which there is only one institution of higher education, the committee for the selection of candidates shall consist of the president and faculty of the state university.

(7) That in the state of Colorado the committee of selection shall consist of the president of the University of Colorado, the president of the University of Denver and the president of Colorado college, the first named president being chairman.

It will be thus seen that the appointments are to be purely of merit and in no sense gift or favoritism. To receive the honor the candidate must have spent at least two years in a collegiate institution. According to the terms of the will each state is to have two students at a time at Oxford and each is to spend three years there, receiving each year $1,500. The first student to be appointed will begin his course in October 1904, the second October 1905. There will be no appointment in 1906, one in 1907 and one in 1908, and none in 1909. Eventually there will be 96 students for the United States and about 200 in all at Oxford on the Rhodes foundation.

After the conference Dr. Parkin made a few remarks which will be of great interest. He said he had found great unanimity of opinion on the country upon the matters about which he sought information. President Roosevelt was one of the first to express to him the hope that the selection of candidates should be purely academic. This was the idea of the Rhodes trustees, that neither politics nor creed should affect the choice. Only university or college men are eligible. The appointments must be made through the college and university medium. By a misunderstanding the governor of Colorado, that has just gone out of office, thought that he should select the Colorado scholars and he perhaps had good faith he made the appointments. But it is evident that a number of considerations make it impossible for the selection to be made by any but college or university men. No doubt it will be a great disappointment to the young men selected by the governor Orman, that their appointment is not valid, but there remains to them the same chance as to others to apply for the scholarships through the regular academic channels, and it is to be hoped that their claims will be strong enough to justify their appointment. But of course they must meet the same tests as to qualifications as are required of all candidates.

The conference of yesterday completes Dr. Parkin's tour of the United States. Today he goes to Chicago and then to Washington to rejoin his family and to prepare for the Rhodes trustees a scheme of appointments for the United States which shall be based on his observations and conferences with educational leaders. Then he is to return to England and to start soon for Australia on the same mission which brought him to the United States.

The gathering in Denver was perfectly unanimous, every resolution receiving the vote of everyone present.

Dr. Parkin suggested a list of books which he advised those who are thinking of becoming candidates for the scholarships to read. They are the following: Responsions Papers, Oxford University Press, 28c; Oxford Students Handbook, Oxford University Press, 84c; Louis Dyer, "Oxford As It Is," Macmillan, 20c; Wells, "Oxford and Its Colleges," Methuen & Co.; Wells, "Oxford and Oxford Life," Methuen & Co.; Goldwin Smith, "Oxford and Her Colleges," Macmillan; Corbin, "An American at Oxford," Macmillan.

I am well and feel well, and my neighbors call congratulate me upon my good healthy look.

MAJ. McALLISTER AND THE NEW COUNTY COURT HOUSE

Major McAllister, chief clerk in the office of the county commissioners, estimates that the new court house will be ready for occupancy about the middle of April.

He stated to the Gazette yesterday: "I see no reason why we should not be able to get into our new quarters within at least a month. Nearly all the substantial work has been completed and nothing remains now but detail work which might to be completed within that time.

"None of the offices will be moved however until we can move them all. They are so connected with each other that one cannot operate completely without the others."

OFFICIALS CHECK UP THE REPAIRS AT THE CITY JAIL

The county commissioners yesterday went over the plumbing work recently completed at the city jail for the purpose of determining whether or not the terms and specifications of the contract had been complied with. The work was started several months ago at a cost of $1,200 and if the work is approved the commissioners will order the payment of the amount.

SCHOOL LIBRARY BOOKS BEGINNING TO ARRIVE

The first consignment of books for the libraries of the new high school building and the new addition to the old building have arrived in the city and are now in the cellar but they will be distributed. The firm furnishing the books, Whitney & Gilmore, expect to complete the work during the $1,500 appropriation recently made by the board of education. The consignment of books included [illegible] about 1,[illegible] volumes and [illegible]

Union label, strictly authorized, showing that the Gazette employs union labor exclusively in all its departments.

WORK IN THE SACRAMENTO

Two Sets of Lessees Expect to Make the Property a Paying Proposition Good Ore Shoot Said to Have Been Encountered in the Mary Cashen.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, March 16.—Lessees have started to work on the Sacramento property now owned by the Stratton estate. The property afforded considerable ore in the past and will probably be a shipping proposition again in the near future. Two leases were granted on this property a short time ago which will run until January 1, 1905. The west end, under lease to J. H. Hunt and Taylor, where they are at work on an old incline shaft which was sunk at the time to a depth of 200 feet. It is provided in their lease that should they do any sinking whatever, that it must be started from the surface, and that the shaft must be four by eight feet.

The east end of the property has been leased and is being developed by an incline shaft down some 180 feet. The lease on this block states that should any sinking be done it must be done from this old shaft.

Returns were received today by Lessee Hummer from a two-carload shipment sent out last week from the Gold Bonde company, which returned values of $31 to the ton. Another shipment of two carloads of ore will be sent out in a day or two.

The Mary Cashen on Battle mountain, operated by the Par Value Mining and Leasing company, is reported to have struck a good ore shoot, and from this time on, will be able to make a regular production. The outlook at the present time for this property is very bright.

The Cripple Creek Ore and Sampling company on Bull hill sent out during the past week, 15 carloads of ore a day, all consigned to the Florence reduction works and Pueblo smelters. This sampler is not having any trouble at the present time in finding a ready market for all ore they can get a hold of.

Dan Hanley arrived in the city last night from St. Louis, where he has been for several weeks in consultation with his associates, relative to extensive operations in connection with the Enterprise Mining company, which company is operating under the streets and alleys of Cripple Creek.

GOLD COIN PROPERTIES POSTPONEMENT

On account of the unsettled condition of the strike, the directors of the Gold Coin and United Gold Mines company did not meet yesterday afternoon but postponed action on the declaration of the dividend until today, when they will be governed largely by what transpires during the morning, according to F. M. Woods, general manager of the properties.

The physical condition of the properties is said to be excellent and are running $40 and better per ton is being shipped from the Gold Coin from the ore body recently opened in the fourth level. A small streak of ore in this portion of the property runs as high as 50 ounces to the ton.

A production of about 50 tons of ore per day is being made from the Wild Horse mine of the United Gold Mines company and including the output being made by lessee of a total production of about 125 tons is being made from the entire property. Connections are being made between the ninth and tenth levels in the Wild Horse to secure good air circulation.

ALLEGHANY BROTHERS

W. A. Swan of the Pacific company, operating in the Granite district, yesterday received assay certificates showing values of $25.20 in the south drift from the bottom of the 175-foot shaft. This drift has been run for a distance of about 20 feet, the values where the drift was started running only $2.40 per ton. In the north drift, which has been run a distance of 35 feet shows assays of about $10 per ton. The company is employing about 12 men in the development work.

A party of gentlemen from the east visited the property a few days ago and were much pleased with the indications.

WILL TEST THE VALUE OF THE CYANIDE PROCESS

It is expected that a thorough test of the value of the cyanide process will be made by the new mill being completed at Gillett as soon as it is ready to receive ores, which will be about the first of April. The mill is now receiving the finishing touches. It is claimed that this process will save over 95 per cent of the gold in the ores.

LATE REPORTS FROM A WELL-KNOWN NEVADA MINE

Reports received yesterday by E. S. Bach, secretary of the Consolidated company, owning property adjoining the Wedekind mine near Reno, Nevada, indicate an increase in the values found in the crosscut run from the main shaft to intersect the vein which is being developed in the adjoining Wedekind. The assays are now running as high as 50 ounces in silver and about $10 in gold, a total value of about $35 per ton.

THE PRODUCTION FROM THE ACACIA PROPERTIES

The Acacia company has just received returns from a shipment of 15 tons of ore from the Morning Star claim under lease to Sharp and associates, showing values of $18 for one consignment and $31 for the other. Considerable ore is being taken out that barely pays expenses but on the whole the lessees are making a fair production from both the Morning Star and the Burns claims.

Coffee Market.

By Associated Press.

New York, March 16.—Coffee—Spot Rio, quiet, No. 7 invoice 6¾. Mild quiet.

Metal Market.

By Associated Press.

New York, March 16.—Tin broke £2 17s 6d in London with spot closing at £135 17s 6d, and futures at £136. The decline was attributed to the heavy shipments from the Straits settlements which for the first half of the month exceeded by some 8,000 tons the figures of the corresponding date last year. The weakness abroad unsettled the tin market which was very dull and considerably lower spot being quoted at 30. Copper closed at an advance of 3s 6d in London, where spot was finally quoted at £66 5s and futures at £67 7s 6d. The local market was unsettled and nominally unchanged. Standard is quoted at $14.06, lake and electrolytic at $14.75@15.00 and casting at $14.62½@15.00, all nominal. Lead was unchanged at £13 16s in London and at $4.67½ in the local market. Spelter advanced 5s in London to £23 15s and was also firm and higher here closing at $5.50. Iron closed at 56s 6d in Glasgow and at 61s 1½d in Middlesboro. In New York was unchanged.

NEWS AGENT KILLED.

By Associated Press.

Grand Island, Neb., March 16.—Fast mail train No. 102 east bound on the Union Pacific collided head-on with a freight at Brady's Island early today. Herman Hopkins of Omaha, the news agent, who was standing on a platform, was killed and Conductor M. C. Wallace, also of Omaha had a leg broken. None of the passengers were hurt.

THE KATY MAY EXTEND.

Cuticura Resolvent Pills (chocolate coated) are the product of twenty-five years' practical laboratory experience in the preparation of remedies for the treatment of humours of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, and are confidently believed to be superior to all other alteratives as well as liquid blood purifiers, however expensive, while enabling all to enjoy the curative properties of precious medicinal agents without consuming needless expenses and often injurious portions of alcohol in which such medicines have heretofore been preserved.

Cuticura Pills are alterative, antiseptic, tonic and digestive, and beyond question the purest, sweetest, most successful and economical blood and skin purifiers, humour cures and tonic-digestives yet compounded. Medium adult dose, one pill.

Complete external and internal treatment for every humour may now be had for one dollar, consisting of Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the skin, Cuticura Ointment, to heal the skin, and Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool and cleanse the blood. A single set, costing but one dollar, is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring skin, scalp and blood humours, eczemas, rashes, itchings and irritations, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, when physicians and all other remedies fail.

In Cases of Constipation, Sluggish Liver, Scalp Humours, and for Renovating and Invigorating the Blood,

ELECTRO-MAGNETINE

AN ELECTRO-MAGNETIZED AND AMMONIO-CAMPHORATED

GREEN OINTMENT

A MARVEL OF REMEDIAL EFFICACY AND

A BOON TO BOTH MAN AND BEAST.

THE OUTCOME OF TWENTIETH CENTURY ADVANCE IN

ELECTRO-CHEMICAL SCIENCE.

POSSESSED OF MARVELLOUS PROPERTIES.

ELECTRO-MAGNETINE is believed to be the only preparation yet devised for curative purposes endowed with such peculiar properties that when applied to any part of the human body, accompanied with brisk rubbing with the naked hands, it causes an active and energetic electro-magnetic action to be set up in the parts to which it is applied.

The wonderful potency of this peculiar form of electro-magnetic force, individual, or animal, magnetism, or whatever it may properly be termed, in curing certain forms of human maladies has been demonstrated beyond the possibility of doubt.

Whether ELECTRO-MAGNETINE is actually charged with electro-magnetic properties infused into it in the process of manufacture, or whether it serves merely as a medium through which electro-magnetic forces are developed by active rubbing and which are, through it, transmitted or applied to the parts operated upon, we are not yet quite prepared to say, but of one thing we are certain, viz: That the combined use of ELECTRO-MAGNETINE with active rubbing is much more efficient in a curative way than either of these agencies employed separately.

The free application of the ELECTRO-MAGNETINE to Swollen Joints, accompanied with vigorous rubbing with the bare hands, sets up in the affected parts such an active electro-magnetic action as to greatly promote the circulation of the blood through the swollen parts and thereby hasten absorption and consequent reduction of swelling, stiffness, soreness and pain.

IMPORTANCE OF THOROUGH RUBBING.

Too much stress cannot be laid upon the importance of thorough and vigorous rubbing of the affected parts after a free application of the ELECTRO-MAGNETINE. In fact, the brisk rubbing should be kept up until the surface to which the ELECTRO-MAGNETINE has been applied has become quite dry and wholly free from the lubricated look and glossy look due to the application of the Cream Liniment. In all Chronic, or long standing, Swollen, or Enlarged Joints, the thorough course of treatment above directed should be applied two or three times a day.

WEAK BACKS MADE STRONG.

By a somewhat protracted use of ELECTRO-MAGNETINE, accompanied with thorough rubbing, or massage, weak backs are made strong. Sore Muscles and Lame Backs, whether arising from strains, over-exertion or Rheumatic Conditions of the system, are relieved, as if by magic, by the thorough application of this remedy. Foot-ball and base-ball players are amongst those loudest in their praises of it as giving most prompt relief from Muscle pains, Lameness and Soreness caused by over exertion and strains.

Especially has ELECTRO-MAGNETINE proven its power to cure Obstinate Cases of Swollen or Enlarged and Stiffened Joints, whether arising from Rheumatic, Gouty or other conditions of the system, which cause inflammation, effusion and consequent enlargement of the joints.

IN ALL CHRONIC OR LINGERING AFFECTIONS.

For the cure of which ELECTRO-MAGNETINE is recommended, it should be thoroughly applied two or three times daily, as above directed, not omitting thorough rubbing with the bare hands.

OWNERS OF LIVE STOCK

Should know that ELECTRO-MAGNETINE is quite as effective in a curative way, when applied to horses and cattle suffering from Sprains, Bruises, Lameness, Swollen or Stiffened Joints and kindred affections, as when applied to human flesh.

Sold by druggists and dealers in medicines, throughout the United States and Canada, at 50 cents, or sent post paid by the manufacturers on receipt of the price in postage stamps or postal order.

EASTERN MARKETS

STOCK LETTER.

Report of J. S. Bache & Co. to Otis & Hough.

New York, March 16.—Declines of from ½ to 1 point were shown in the London market before our opening. It was but natural to look for some selling pressure, which developed after first half hour. N. Y. C. was first of the internationals to feel the brunt of selling. Losses of ½ to ¾ points occurred in all the active issues. The rallies during the entire session except in last hour were feeble and not maintained. Short covering in the last hour advanced all the active issues one to one and one-half points. Union Gas declined ¾ points on fear the municipal authorities would operate the plant for lighting the city.

Amalgamated Copper gave evidences of profit-taking largely for Boston account. Money continued to rule firm and it is surprising to observe that with the high rates for money here larger amounts have not been attracted from interior. We think the market a purchase on this decline.

McIntyre & Marshall—The irregularity in the stock market today was due to the adverse effect which the weakness of the London markets showed, continued uncertainty of the money situation and spread of labor troubles, together with the uncertainty as to what may develop from the Southern Pacific contest. There was a great deal of in and out trading by the followers of the most prominent outside operator at the head of Southern Pacific pool with most of them selling Union Pacific short and bulling Southern Pacific. London houses sold 40,000 shares of various stocks on balance. The continued weakness in Northwest stock was a striking feature and likewise N. Y. C., Pennsylvania, St. Paul and the weakness these stocks displayed had a very depressing influence and had much to do with checking any new outside demand. We cannot see much in the situation at the moment that is encouraging to bullish speculation to any extent and expect nothing better than a continuance of the present narrow traders' market, and think the tendency of prices is more likely to drag.

GRAIN LETTER.

Report of Logan & Bryan (by Private Wire), to Otis & Hough.

Chicago, March 16.—Wheat—Liverpool unchanged. Paris unchanged to ¼ higher. Antwerp unchanged. Market has been a weak affair and at one time was ¾ under Saturday's close. There was less pressure to sell July, and the May premium narrowed somewhat. Weakness in corn had a depressing influence but there was a great deal of wheat pressing for sale, which was said to be for the northwest. World's shipments were about as expected and there was a decrease on passage of nearly 1,750,000. The primary receipts were larger than a year ago and the seaboard reported very little export inquiry. Weather through the wheat belt was mild and all that could be expected. At no time were there any good buying orders in sight. Principal support was buying by commission houses on resting orders. We still feel that an urgent foreign demand is required to prevent a further decline in prices. Visible supply decreased 681,000 and is now 16,086,000 against 51,997,000. Estimated cars tomorrow, 20.

Corn—Liverpool ½ lower. Trade has been on a large scale. Shortly after the opening liquidation which was in evidence Saturday made its appearance and the market sold off sharply. One of the bull leaders is said to have parted with 4,000,000 bushels of May through three commission houses. There was less pressure to sell July, in fact, the interest which sold May aggressively was reported as a buyer of the July option. Cash market was weak, 1 to 2 cents lower with car lots pressing for sale. After selling through 46, there were a great many stop orders uncovered which helped along the decline. The May position, however, has not changed and we believe advantage should be taken of any further break to replace corn sold. Visible supply decreased 479,000 bushels and is now 10,812,000 against 9,086,000 a year ago. Estimated cars tomorrow, 355.

Oats—Ruled lower in sympathy with weakness in wheat and corn. The large receipts and easier tone to the cash market had a depressing effect all day. The visible supply increased 315,000 bushels, and there was an increase in public stocks of 2,000 bushels. We do not think May oats are high around present prices. Visible supply increased 315,000 bushels, and is now 7,313,000 against 3,486,000. Estimated cars tomorrow, 220.

Provisions—Have had a weak undertone affected by the weakness in grain pits and large run of hogs. There was more or less outside liquidation and also a good deal of May pork for sale by local traders. Western hog receipts were larger than last year and exports for the week under corresponding period in 1902. Outside interest in the market remains comparatively light. Prices for the immediate future will depend upon the run of hogs.

Woman's Nightmare

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much so as it is to love the beautiful and pure. The critical ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so fraught with dread, pain, suffering and danger, that the very thought of it fills her with apprehension and horror. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend so prepares the system for the trying event that it is safely passed without any danger. This wonderful remedy is always applied externally, and thousands have passed through childbirth without suffering.

An Epidemic of the Grip.

There has been a great epidemic of this malady in this vicinity for the past [illegible] years. W. J. Wilcox of Lockport, N. Y., "All of my customers that I could believe in for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy were cured without the aid of a doctor and I employed a doctor and they did not use this remedy. They could have saved money by using it." Many say the same thing. It is the best cough medicine in use. Every cold or attack of the grip weakens the system, lowers the vitality and paves the way for more serious difficulties. Make a trial of this remedy and it will save you health and money. LEGISLATURE MAY NOT [illegible] NECESSARY WORK

[illegible] Possible an Extra Session as A[illegible] Discussion—House Measures Passed Senate Committee of the Whole as Amended—[illegible] Passed the House on Third Reading.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, March 16.—Instead of wasting time considering ordinary unnecessary measures, as is usually done, the senate today killed four bills outright in short order, and then frittered away the entire morning discussing the past inactivity of this body of statesmen.

Senator Drake said: "We are not doing anything here but a lot of wind-jamming and talking to galleries. If we ran our farms the way this senate is being run, we would not last until June. We should either get down to business, or adjourn and go home."

Senator DeLong declared: "It is a certain stigma against a governor to call an extra session. I want it distinctly understood that if an extra session is called, it will be because of the tactics of the Democratic members. Time is frittered away and everything that is detrimental to this assembly is resorted to."

Senator Berela thought Senator DeLong was making a play to the galleries and called attention to the record of the senator from the Sixteenth, who, he said, made a grandstand play last week in the strike investigation resolution and is looked upon as an obstructionist of no mean ability.

Senator Ward wanted to know if it would be wrong to hold up appropriation bills unless important bills are allowed to be considered. No reply was ventured as to this, as no one cared to be quoted regarding the righteousness of such a course. It is the general impression around the state house that all important bills will be held up, which will necessitate the calling of an extra session by the governor. Such an outcome may be expected unless there is a great change in the transaction of business during the next few days.

Senator Rush called attention to the insignificance of legislative measures passed in the house, saying: "They don't amount to anything. Republican members have not kept faith with a single one of their many party pledges." Referring to some Republican members he continued: "Their records are so black that it is no wonder they want to sneak off home."

The above statements were made during the discussion precipitated by the consideration of a resolution by Senator Ballinger, that the senate adjourn sine die Saturday, March 21. Senator Rush said: "This resolution means the death of both house and senate bills and the death of everything that is expected to be accomplished. I don't propose to have good legislation killed without those responsible answering for it. If passed this would necessitate the calling of an extra session. Constituents are looking to their representatives to accomplish something and I urge the consideration of important bills by members of this body."

Senator Ballinger replied: "I don't want to kill any bills, but if we will work we can pass more bills than we could at the rate things have been going. If we get down to work, we can pass all the important measures before this body by next Saturday. It is not the intention to kill legislation and all who are insincere in their declarations can do more actual business if this is passed. There is not much prospect of passing the eight-hour bill, civil service bill and several other measures, and it is a waste of time to stay here and wrangle over bills of no importance. But if by adjourning we would kill any good bills, I want to withdraw this resolution, with the consent of my second."

The resolution was killed.

When the senate again convened after recess for lunch, some of the loafers in the way against time wasting were not on hand. They came in later and were brought before the senate bar by Sergeant-at-Arms Dooley to answer for their tardiness. Senators DeLong, Campbell and Rush were the ones delinquent. Senator DeLong was fined the usual penalty—a box of cigars and a box of candy, while Campbell was not fined as it was his first offense. Senator Rush was an old offender, and although not ordered to pay a penalty, he was severely criticised for his negligence.

Sanford's Medical Bill.

House bill No. 83, by Mr. Sanford, the measure to protect the public health, which has been the basis of many hot debates, between supporters of the various schools of medicine, was passed by a committee of the whole this afternoon, as amended. One amendment specified that no Christian Scientists can practice upon contagious or infectious diseases without a certificate from the board.

Senator Buckley's bill to protect game and fish was the next to consider. Several amendments were made and a recess was taken at 5 o'clock, the senators to convene again at 8 o'clock this evening, to continue their consideration of the bill.

The house did not convene today until afternoon, as most of the representatives did not return from their junketing trip before then. They were busy all during the balance of the day and passed on third reading several bills of but little importance. House bill No. 167, Mr. Stubbs, constitutional amendment was killed. House bill No. 289, by Mr. McDougal, providing for payment of salaries to certain state employes was laid over. The following house bills passed on third reading: No. 358, Watson, in relation to the clerk of the supreme court. No. 257, Nungle, considering executions. No. 93, Murto, relating to changes in revenue. No. 198, Dolph, concerning salaries of deputy district attorneys. No. 131, Sanford, terms of court in the fourth judicial district.

House bill No. 212, McKenzie, regulating the employment in mines, mills, smelters and factories, was approved by the committee of the whole. House bill No. 106, by Mrs. Ruble, to amend the act establishing the State Industrial School for Girls, killed because same was covered by senate bill. House bill No. 273, Paul, in relation to the organization and government of irrigation districts, passed the committee of the whole.

State Industrial School.

Investigation as to the finances of State Industrial School for Girls has been completed by Special Examiner Lewis Schwanbeck and his report has been filed with the governor. Mr. Schwanbeck reports that the board had been economical in its expenditures.

The Rev. G. Campbell Morgan addressed a large audience yesterday afternoon at the Trinity church. Only men were admitted and at least 1,000 heard the talk on "Evils of the Liquor Habit." It was the beginning of a campaign of two weeks under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Rev. Mr. Morgan believes as did Mr. Moody that the bible is wholly true, that events narrated in the old and new testament actually happened, and uses methods and much of the force of the great evangelist. He has won for himself the title of "The Second Moody."

N[illegible] TO BE NEW [illegible]

Entire Police Force of the City and County Engaged on the Case—Union Ave. Improvements.

Pueblo Bureau.
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Pueblo, March 16.—But few tangible clews developed in the murder mystery of last night, when Dr. J. H. Turner, a prominent physician, and C. E. Bishop, an engineer, were murdered in Lousteed's cafe at 7:25 o'clock, Bishop having died this morning. It was learned today that the hold-ups had been seen shortly after the shooting by a 17-year-old son of Charles Timbers, who lives on West Third street. He saw two men running rapidly down the street, after hearing the shots fired, and later a man with a bandaged hand darted from a dark alley and asked the boy the shortest route to Victoria avenue. According to the boy's story the man was much agitated and so frightened that he could barely speak. This morning a mask worn by one of the hold-ups, two pairs of overalls and a slouch hat were found in what is known as the Fourth street bottoms, and were later identified by eyewitnesses to the tragedy as being the clothing worn by the men. The coroner will hold an inquest tomorrow morning and numerous witnesses have been summoned. The remains of Dr. Turner were tonight taken to Cornell, Ia., accompanied by Dr. T. H. Stoddard, with whom he had been in partnership. The police and deputy sheriffs are working night and day to capture the murderers, and it is believed that they will be apprehended within a short time.

SUICIDE.—Nunzio B. Vuonamos, an Italian who has been under bond on a serious charge, was found dead today in a ditch three and a half miles north of the city, and all indications went to show that he had committed suicide by shooting himself several days ago. The body was somewhat decomposed and wild animals had eaten some of the flesh from it. The remains were identified by several prominent members of the Italian colony. The dead man was being eagerly sought by his bondsmen as he failed to appear for trial at the district court. A statutory charge was against him, the parents of a 12-year-old girl being the accusers.

RELEASED FROM CUSTODY.—Mrs. Callie Stanley, the young woman who has been held at the county jail on the charge of complicity in the Carleton postoffice robbery November 8, last, was today released from custody by United States Commissioner Ellen J. Beaumont. There was not sufficient evidence upon which to hold the young woman, although it is highly probable that she will be held as a witness in the trial of "Cherokee Bill," who is under arrest in Denver on the charge of having committed the robbery.

ACCIDENT AT STEEL WORKS.—John Hayes, an employe of the Minnequa steel works, will probably die as a result of injuries received while at work today. He was standing under a scaffolding upon which a number of men were working. The support gave way and a plank on which the men were standing struck Hayes on the head and fractured his skull. He was removed to the Minnequa hospital where at a late hour tonight his condition is precarious. He was a single man and had been in Pueblo but a short time.

WOMEN VICTORIOUS.—Pueblo women achieved a triumph at tonight's council meeting, when they presented a petition signed by 1,500 women of Pueblo, asking that the council take steps for the moral and physical betterment of Union avenue, one of the principal streets of the city. The women ask that the number of saloons be limited and that the ordinance regarding municipal cleanliness be carried out in this particular locality. Their requests were granted by a vote of 7 ayes to 1 nay.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

REDUCTION IN THE STATE GENERAL APPROPRIATION

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, March 16.—The joint appropriation committee of the general assembly has completed its work on the general appropriation bill. The bill makes the state house expenses from 10 to 15 per cent less than last year. The total contingent fund is reduced to $121,100. Appropriation for state board of arbitration is cut out altogether and allowance for clerk hire is materially reduced. The fund for the various fish hatcheries is cut down, appropriations for an assistant being omitted.

Cripple Creek Trades Assembly Opposes His Appointment—Wolcottites Named a Ticket.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, March 16.—At a meeting of the trades assembly, the most important business transacted was the adoption of the following resolution:

"Whereas, Governor Peabody in his official capacity, according to the custom as prescribed by law, named for the appointment to the office of adjutant general of the National guard of Colorado, one Sherman Bell of Teller county, and

"Whereas, The said Sherman Bell has made himself obnoxious to organized labor in his actions at Colorado City during the past few weeks, even while not yet acting in his official capacity, assuming that he was the only factor to be considered in the controversy between the Western Federation of Miners and the United States Reduction and Refining company, and

"Whereas, The said Sherman Bell has by his actions shown that he is not a fit person to hold so important an office, it being shown conclusively that he is utterly owned and controlled by the capitalist class, as against labor, therefore be it

"Resolved, By the Cripple Creek trades and labor assembly that we are unalterably opposed to the confirmation of his appointment as adjutant general by the general assembly of the state of Colorado, as being unwise and detrimental to the commonwealth of Colorado."

From well-known authority it is learned tonight that the resolution does not amount to anything, because the legislative body cannot act on Sherman Bell's appointment, as they do not have power to act, as he is an officer appointed by the governor. The only resolution they could make would be one made direct, to the governor of Colorado demanding his resignation.

WOLCOTTITE TICKET.—The Wolcott Republican convention was held today in the Miners Union hall in this city with Chairman Senator James Owen in the chair. After the temporary organization was completed, with Bruno Hobbs as chairman and Sam Vidler as secretary, different committees were appointed on permanent organization. After committees being accepted, the convention immediately got down to the nominations for the city ticket, which resulted in the following gentlemen being nominated: For mayor, W. L. Rhockey; for city attorney, C. A. Gillett; for city marshal, W. P. K. Hedrick; for city clerk, E. M. Turner; for city treasurer, A. C. Jones; for street supervisor, S. E. McDonald; for city engineer, F. W. Crosley; for police judge, F. O. Veale.

Officers were then appointed by the convention for city central committee, Charles Berry, private secretary to Congressman Herschel Hogg, being elected chairman, and Sam Vidler to the secretaryship. Two members from each ward were then appointed to select an executive committee and treasurer and to fill vacancies.

SHURTLOFF LITIGATION.—In the district court today the case of Ed Bell versus Becker and Nolon was on trial all day, the action being brought to secure a one-third interest in the Shurtloff property, located on Bull Hill.

With ex-Governor Charles Thomas and Frank Hange representing the plaintiff and F. D. Crump and General Eugene Engley the defendants, a legal battle is on, the entire time being taken in the taking of testimony for the defense. Judge Cunningham of Colorado Springs is on the bench hearing this trial.

SWITCHMAN FATALLY INJURED AT VICTOR

Special to the Gazette.

Victor, March 16.—W. R. Davis, a switchman employed by the F. & C. C. railway people, while engaged in making a coupling about 7:30 this morning, caught his foot in the frog of the track, and before he could extricate it, the moving cars had crushed his left leg, the limb being entirely severed between the ankle and knee. The accident occurred in the local yards in this city. The unfortunate man was immediately moved to the Victor hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate the leg at the knee, and from the shock of the operation and accident he failed to rally, and died at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Deceased was 27 years of age, and leaves a wife and little daughter, residing at 226 South First street in this city. Coroner Doran will hold an inquest tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock.

Now you know the Difference.

DIFFERENCE IN THE PLACE

From the field to your breakfast table, the story of Quaker Oats is a story of being different.

And there in your plate,—hot, tempting, satisfying,—you have every difference that could make your breakfast better.

All the Quaker care, and skill, and patience have been used to make your breakfast pure and wholesome.

Make the most of it. Cook it right, as directed on the package.

Quaker OATS
Best Breakfast.

Costs you no more than oats which are not as wholesome and which have not been milled as carefully. Quaker Oats is just as easy to buy. You have only to say "Quaker" distinctly.

GRAIN DIFFERENCE
The Quaker quality of wheat is not easy to find.
To supply the needs for the Quaker mills we must search the country far and wide.
We watch where the good oats grow. For even as it grows the difference begins.
Sun may shrivel—or too much rain spoil the crop. But where the crop is best, we are there to choose the best of the best.
There is that much difference in the Quaker grain—before it starts for the Mill.
This is only the first difference in the Quaker Oats.
Quaker OATS Best Grain.
Costs you no more than oats which are not as wholesome and which have not been milled as carefully. Quaker Oats is just as easy to buy. You have only to say "Quaker" distinctly.

MILLING DIFFERENCE
After we buy the best, each single grain is cleaned and judged separately by machinery.
The machine leaves nothing to chance.
Thin and woody, flat and flavorless, are thrown out.
Here is a difference of time, care and thoroughness.
The great that is good enough to pass this test is indeed different from other grain.

FRESHNESS DIFFERENCE
Quaker patience does things thoroughly.
Careful in the choosing of the grain—slow in the manufacture.
But when packages are sealed up time is lost.
It is packages into cases—cases into cars—and the cars away, the same day, for all parts of the country.
Quaker Oats sells so fast that the dealer's stock is fresh.
This means much for purity.
No other food comes from the mill to your table so fast and fresh as Quaker OATS —for freshness

PACKING DIFFERENCE
Hot and fragrant from the rolls, Quaker Oats goes straight into the package—shut tight, sealed safe—hermetically.
The Quaker carton costs about half as much again as the box that gives the pasteboard flavor to most cereals.
After spending so much care on the quality and purity of Quaker Oats, we could not let our work be spoiled for the sake of cheap packing.
The costly Quaker packing makes another difference in

FLAVOR DIFFERENCE
Pan-roasting is where most millers save time.
Their oats are rushed—mulled—for the profit's sake.

HOYT'S "A TRIP TO CHINATOWN."

Hoyt's phenomenal success, "A Trip to Chinatown," will be the attraction at the Opera house next Monday evening.

Of all the successes of this gifted author none ever attained such popularity as "A Trip to Chinatown," with its bright dialogue, its down-to-the-minute topics of the day, its amusing situations, catchy music, clever dances and brimming over with sparkling fun. Much of the great success of this popular play is due to the fact that it is written in Mr Hoyt's happiest vein and has more snap and ginger than any other play ever turned out by this famous writer of farce comedies. The action is so rapid and the ludicrous situations follow each other with such rapidity that there is not a dull moment during the entire evening.

This season several of the latest and popular musical hits of the day are introduced and one of the best companies ever seen in a Hoyt play is promised. Among the prominent members of the cast are Wm Keller Mack, Jack Campbell, Frank Beamish, Percy Walling, Wb Sturgeon, John Doyle, Sylvia Starr, Kitty Wells, Nellie Bennett, Miller, Molly Taylor, Zenie Blair and others.

"THE SECOND MRS TANQUERAY" TO BE PRESENTED BY ROSE COGHLAN.

At the Opera house this evening will be seen A W Pinero's great play presented by Rose Coghlan and an excellent company.

"The Second Mrs Tanqueray" is the story of an innately good woman fighting antagonistic circumstances and being conquered by them. Rose Coghlan's impersonation of Paula Ray is a fine exposition of this difficult character. Her struggles against the inevitable consequences of sin committed through ignorance and the after revelation of her real self when she is true to the promptings of her better nature afford opportunities for the display of Miss Coghlan's superb art in depicting many varying emotions. Miss Coghlan has long been famous as the most expensively dressed woman on the American stage.

The author has written this, "The Notorious Mrs Ebbsmith" and other similar plays, which have been eagerly sought after by the most prominent actresses of Europe and America. The royalties exacted by Mr Pinero have precluded the possibility of any second-rate actress assuming the part of "The Second Mrs Tanqueray," which has only been played in America by Mrs Kendal, Olga Nethersole, Mrs Patrick Campbell, Eleanora Duse and Miss Rose Coghlan. The reputation of Miss Coghlan, Mr Pinero and the established status of "The Second Mrs Tanqueray," which is now being presented in five European countries and languages, together with the elaborate production and capable cast of characters provided are sufficient guarantees of an unusually pleasing dramatic performance.

Miss Coghlan's superb costumes, regal stage presence and knowledge of her art are too well known to need dilating upon. Her performance of Paula is so virile, magnetic and finished that it is hard to determine her place among famous actresses who have essayed this difficult role, but the name of Coghlan is guarantee enough that it is in the front rank.

McKinley Souvenirs.

The souvenir certificates, which are to go to contributors to the McKinley memorial fund are now being distributed, and are to be seen in one or more of the department stores of this city. The task of placing so large a number of these mementoes without a serious expense to the Memorial association, has been solved, in a measure, by the officers of the association through the generosity of the department stores of the country, they having almost without exception volunteered to act as distributing agents. This idea was suggested by the fact that no other single agency would reach so large a proportion of the population in the large centers. The certificate is a beautiful work of art on which is given an excellent representation of Mrs. McKinley's favorite likeness of her husband together with a picture of the McKinley home in Canton and of the White house. The wording below the illustrations is as follows: "This certifies that [illegible] has contributed to the fund for the erection of the national memorial at Canton, Ohio, in honor of William McKinley." The workmanship and artistic effects are of the very highest order, the great house of Tiffany & Co, New York, being the designers and manufacturers. The supply in the hands of the stores is a portion of the first edition of the certificates and is sent here to enable those who have not as yet contributed to do so. Parties who have already identified themselves with the movement will receive souvenirs direct from the office of the association or through local committees.

UNKNOWN HEIRS MAY INHERIT BIG ESTATE

The will of John E. Walters, late proprietor of the Pittsburg hotel, Manitou, which was filed with the clerk of the county court yesterday, reveals relatives not known to the executor, George H. Renn, and is drawn in such a manner that litigation may ensue. A cousin, Robert Walters of Mijoma, Pa, and an uncle, John Warren of Evans, Pa, are mentioned, both to receive half of the proceeds from the sale of Walters' interest in the Pittsburg hotel.

The name of the grandmother is not mentioned, however and if there be one living, as was stated in Mr Renn's application for an order to collect she has been cut off from any share in the estate. Under these circumstances it is probable that inasmuch as she is the only direct living heir and those mentioned in the will are only lateral heirs, that should she so decide she could bring suit to have the will declared a nullity. If she did so and the point was sustained in the courts the estate would then be distributed as though there had been no will at all. In that case she being the only direct heir would receive the property and the lateral heirs mentioned in the will would not receive anything.

The will disposes of a shotgun to Percy McCoy and a gift and pistol to Charles Turner both of Manitou.

James B Gregg son of the Rev. Dr James B Gregg pastor of the First Congregational church, this city was united in marriage yesterday to Miss Pauline Pumpelly of Newport, R I. The home in that city. The bride is a daughter of Raphael Pumpelly, formerly professor in Harvard university.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr Dunnell, head master of the school at which Mr Gregg taught for three years after his graduation from Harvard.

NEW SCIENTIFIC PROCESS

A Preparation Discovered That Will Destory the Dandruff Germ

For some time it has been known that dandruff is caused by a germ that digs up the roots into little white flakes and by sapping the vitality of the hair at the root causes falling hair and of course finally baldness. For years there have been all kinds of high stimulants and sticky tonics on the market but there has been no permanent cure found for dandruff until the discovery of a preparation called Newbro's Herpicide which destroys the dandruff germ. Destroy the germ the effect will cease to exist. Kill the dandruff germ and you'll have no dandruff, no itching scalp, no falling hair.

The Herpicide is a delightful hair dressing and a most popular one. Ladies who have used it for their toilet say it is the most satisfactory article they have used for the purpose. Gentlemen who have been bothered with dandruff find that one dollar's worth of Herpicide will do more than a hundred dollars worth of anything else they have used. Herpicide is sold by all druggists who sell high grade goods and we believe that any druggist will gladly give you a sample of Herpicide if you call for it.

THE FOUR-TRACK NEWS

When the different members of the editor's family ask "Why don't the Four-Track News come? It is getting to be like Castoria, everybody gives it to the children and this tells the story. It is the most interesting publication that comes to our exchanges and the reason is easily told. Mr George H Daniels the general passenger agent who has charge of it has the Carnegie faculty of getting good men around him who know their business and the result is that in everything the publication department of the New York Central distributes it is all right. (Brooklyn N Y Journal.

The subscription price of The Four-Track News is 50 cents per year. A sample copy will be sent free for 5 cents by Geo H Daniels, General Passenger Agent New York Central & Hudson River railroad, Grand Central station New York.

GENERAL MEETING OF THE REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE

A general meeting of the Real Estate exchange will be held Friday evening at 7 30 in the rooms of the chamber of commerce. A call for this meeting was sent out by the newly elected secretary, J. H House acting upon instructions from President H LeB Willis. At this meeting the action of the board of directors in the different meetings of that body recently will be taken up and ratified. The business will be of a routine nature, and will consist chiefly of discussion of different subjects of interest to the members.

Spring Tailor-Made Suits. Latest Styles.

They're here. The STYLES are correct. The MATERIALS are the latest. The QUALITIES are the best. The PRICES are the lowest. The styles are fashion's most recent creations, the most noticeable changes being the collarless eton jacket, blouse effect, with postillion back or short skirts and pouch sleeves. The skirts are very full, tucked and kilted, but the flounce, so popular last year, has entirely disappeared.

The materials are of two distinct kinds—the soft clinging Crepes, Voiles and Etamines, and the nobby Scotch effects in heavier materials.

The prices range from $10.00 to $40.00.

Excellent Values $22.50 New Materials.

Plain royal blue Etamine suit. Silk lined, collarless eton blouse, with double cape, edged with black taffeta; postillion back; front has three box plaits; pouch sleeves; new full skirts.

Same style in blue or black Etamine, with hyphen-like dashes of white.

Blue and brown novelty homespun suit. Collarless eton blouse, prettily trimmed with braid; pouch sleeves, postillion back; flaring skirt, kilted at bottom.

Exceptional Values. $15.00 Serviceable Goods.

Light weight Scotch Tweed mixtures in blue or grey. The collarless eton blouse, with short skirt, has six broad tucks front and back; six tassel ornaments on front of blouse; pouch sleeves, with fancy cuffs, trimmed with buttons. The flaring skirt has nine gores, each tucked, and finished about knee with tassel ornaments.

Grey Zibeline suit. The collarless eton blouse with belted postillion back is edged with satin bands and trimmed with metal buttons; pouch sleeves, cuffs edged with satin. The full flare skirt has a kilted bottom and is unlined.

New Silk Coats

One especially stylish effect is a Paletot Coat made from and lined with excellent quality black Taffeta Silk. This blouse coat is collarless, plaited and shirred front and back; very full pouch sleeve, upper part shirred, fancy cuff with tassel ornaments; graduated medium length skirt.

A Spring Suggestion

The best time to buy spring goods is now. One or two reasons why. The new goods are now being shown and the best will go first. The stock is more complete now than it will be later. The one who buys can give you earlier dates now than later. True, other goods are still coming, but, perhaps the thing you want is here now, and if you wait it may be sold and possibly nothing among the late arrivals will suit you as well.

Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months.

"I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness." — MISS ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG GIRLS.

All young girls at this period of life are earnestly invited to write Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given, and her address is Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs. Pinkham is inclined to the belief that our girls are pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries.

Nothing is allowed to interfere with studies, the girl must be pushed to the front and graduated with honors; often physical collapse follows, and it takes years to recover the lost vitality,—often it is never recovered.

A Young Chicago Girl Saved from Despair.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for the help and benefit I have received through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. When I was about seventeen years old I suddenly seemed to lose my usual good health and vitality. Father and I studied to hard, but the doctor thought different and prescribed tonics, which I took by the quart without relief. Reading one day in the paper of Mrs. Pinkham's great cures, and finding the symptoms described answered mine, I decided I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did not say a word to the doctor; I bought it myself, and took it according to directions regularly for two months, and I found that I gradually improved, and that all pains left me, and I was my old self once more. — LILLIE E. SINCLAIR, 17 E. 22d St., Chicago, Ill."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one sure remedy to be relied upon at this important period in a young girl's life; with it she can go through with courage and safety the work she must accomplish, and fortify her physical well being so that her future life may be insured against sickness and suffering.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

[illegible] WILL BE MADE

Council Deferred Action on Election Matters Until Friday Night When Special Meeting Will Be Held — Routine Business Transacted Last Night.

A recapitulation of the business transacted by the city council last night follows

The city council will consider the matter of polling places and judges and clerks of election at a special meeting Friday night in order to comply with the law governing notices

Judgment for $707.50 held by J. E. Boyle ordered paid

Forty acres east of cemetery may be leased for grazing purposes

Admission of Guth's addition laid over

Bill limiting the charge of baggage carriers laid over

Fire and cemetery departments submitted annual reports

The city council last night adjourned to Friday night for the purpose of holding a special meeting to take action on the location of polling places and the selection of judges and clerks for the coming election.

The matter of ratifying the issuance of several sets of refunding bonds will come up at the election on April 4 and the aldermen are anxious that the notice thereof shall be posted 15 days before election as required by law in order to make the bonds legal.

The refunding bonds that will come up for ratification are $24,000 worth of sewer bonds, $50,000 worth of water bonds and $30,000 worth of bridge and viaduct bonds.

The city has the option of either paying these bonds or refunding them and the action of the council in deciding to do the latter will be either confirmed or rejected at the coming election.

Under a suspension of the rules the council took up the matter of allowing a judgment secured against the city by W. I. Whitsell and assigned to J. E. Boyle amounting to $707.50. The judgment was secured for injuries sustained by Mr. Whitsell through an injury received on the result of a defective street and was ordered paid.

Forty acres belonging to the city east of the cemetery was reported by Alderman Patton as being desired for grazing purposes and he was upon motion requested to make arrangements for its lease.

The application for the admission of Guth's addition to the east of the city into the city limits was laid over and will doubtless not be allowed for the reason that there are so few people living in the addition and the expense of building streets and other improvements could not be met by the taxation.

A petition calling for the placing of an arc light at the corner of Weber and Platte avenues was granted.

A resolution providing for the letting of a contract to the Art Metal Construction company of St. Louis for metal shelves and counters in the new city hall was lost by a vote of four to four.

The city attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance creating the office of city storekeeper and placing him under the direction of the city purchasing agent.

A bill limiting the charge of baggage carriers to 50 cents for the first 100 pounds or less and eight cents for each 100 pounds additional was laid over upon motion of Alderman St. John. It was argued that a flat rate should be placed on baggage of 50 pounds and less.

The street committee report of the establishment of grades on Lake, Kiowa, Cache, Bonforte and Institute streets.

A report was received from the chief of the fire department showing that there had been 165 alarms of fire turned in during the last year, that the loss from fire had been $80,694.46, with two large fires, that of the Kearns Mercantile company and the Maples.

The matter of opening the bids for the new high line reservoir will come up at a special meeting next Monday night. The bids will be opened at that meeting and the contract let.

[illegible] Opening of National Reform Association

The opening session of the National Reform convention will be held at the First Presbyterian church tonight and the meetings will continue until Wednesday evening.

One of the prominent features of the program will be an address by Judge Ben Lindsey on the subject of Boys who have gone astray. Mr. Lindsey has taken a great interest in the young boys of the state and his address will undoubtedly be an exceedingly interesting and instructive one. The H. H. George of Pittsburg, Pa., is expected to be present. Mr. George has delivered lectures upon reform subjects in every large city in the east and he is coming to Pueblo with the express purpose of meeting with the association.

It is the intention of the association to create a permanent impression upon the people of the state by the work it does as well as by the meetings held throughout the entire state. A large number of meetings have been held in Pueblo and in several of the smaller towns in the eastern part of the state where great interest has been created. Mayor Robinson will preside tonight and will welcome the association to the city.

Mrs. [illegible] Furnishing Rooms

The names are still coming in to the furnishing committee of the Woman's auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. received word that Mrs. Charles J. Tutt wished to furnish a room in the new building (No. 4) in memory of her daughter, Miss Sophie Tutt.

Room No. 2 will be furnished by the Intermediate C. E. society of the First Presbyterian church. Several other well-known citizens have the matter of furnishing a room or some special portion of the new building under advisement.

There is still another proposition offered to those who wish to be identified with the furnishing of the new Y. M. C. A. building, that of assisting in furnishing the chairs for the auditorium. One thousand one hundred dollars is needed for this purpose and the plan on foot is to sell the chairs on the main floor at $10 each and those in the gallery at $5 each. A name plate can be put on if desired, indicating who has purchased the chair or for whom it is a memorial. One father has bought two seats and will have a plate put on them bearing the names of his children. Anyone willing to purchase seats can notify the general secretary, W. H. Day, or the committee, L. B. Simmons and W. N. Burgess.

[illegible] Delegates Will Attend Meeting

According to W. J. Hartman of Chicago, inspector of air brakes on the Rock Island system, the attendance of delegates at the National Air Brake convention to be held in this city April 28, 29 and 30 will be very large. Every one of the eastern delegates is interested to know how air brakes are operated on mountain roads and I am sure that the annual convention will be as successful in point of attendance as in many other respects, said Mr. Hartman last night. There is a number of our delegates who never saw a mountain and consequently never saw the practical operation of air brakes on mountain roads.

Mr. Hartman has charge of the air brake system on all the lines of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific road, and is now touring the west inspecting the different air brake shops and the men in the employ of this department. Although he is always on the go Mr. Hartman does not cover the entire circuit but once in two years. He is en route to St. Joseph, Missouri, and will return to this city next month to attend the convention. Mr. Hartman has been in the employ of the Rock Island and other roads for a number of years in the air brake department. Before taking up railroad work he was employed in the Westinghouse factory in Pittsburg, where the air brakes now in universal use are manufactured. He relies on his work by a series of practical talks and oral examinations and in that way he keeps his men well posted on all branches of the air brake system.

[illegible] Fire Department Answers Two Calls Last Night

Shortly after midnight this morning fire broke out in a vacant residence in the 500 block on North Chestnut street but was not discovered until the building was a mass of flames. An alarm was turned in and the fire department reached the scene of the fire and in a very few minutes had the blaze under control.

The house was a frame building owned by a Mr. Deal. It had been occupied by a family by the name of Smith until a short time ago when the Smiths went east since which time the house has been vacant.

It is estimated that the loss will be in the neighborhood of $500.

The presence of mind of one of the employes of the St. John & Barnes Plumbing company in promptly shoveling some dirt on a fire discovered in the latter's storage yard about 7:30 o'clock last night and the quenching of a smoldering fire in a dump near the Costilla bridge over Shook's run at about 5 o'clock prevented much serious loss and interruption to business. The fire at the dump was started by the throwing of hot ashes on a pile of straw and other combustible matter and had been in progress for several days before it was discovered.

In the fire at the storage yard of the St. John & Barnes company several barrels of excelsior had been ignited by a passing engine on the Santa Fe road and had begun to burn fiercely when discovered by one of the employes. Had he not kept the fire within bounds pending the arrival of the fire department the flames would have caught the fence and then the sheds where nearly $6,000 worth of plumbing fixtures were stored.

NEW SWITCH BOARD AT CENTRAL FIRE STATION

The new switch board at the fire department will be installed in the office of Chief F. E. Baty today. The company which has had the making of the board in charge, notified the chief to this effect yesterday afternoon and all arrangements have been made for its installation.

With the new board the chief's office will be in constant communication with all the engine houses and the alarm boxes in the city and a day and night operator will have charge of the new board receiving all the reports and making a record of them.

[illegible] Suit Against Portland Gold Mining Company

Twenty-five thousand dollars was asked for personal injuries in a petition filed yesterday with the district clerk by Henry Dykema against the Portland Gold Mining company.

Dykema was a laborer employed by the Portland company at a wage of $3.00 a day and he alleges in his petition that inasmuch as he was completely incapacitated from further work as a result of his injuries he is entitled to a judgment of $25,000, the same being the amount which he would have earned at that rate had he been able to continue work, he being only 24 years old at the time of the accident.

The petition alleges that Dykema was at work unloading a car of ore when the superintendent of the company negligently ordered him at the top of a steep grade on the track on which the car he was unloading was standing. The car struck with a terrible force and the petition alleges Dykema was thrown forward on his head, injuring him as alleged.

The question of the value of a person's earnings will be the chief issue in this suit and the outcome will be watched closely as it will set a precedent in the matter of damage suits of that character.
